Additionally, it enhances skin elasticity and reduces the appearance of creases.

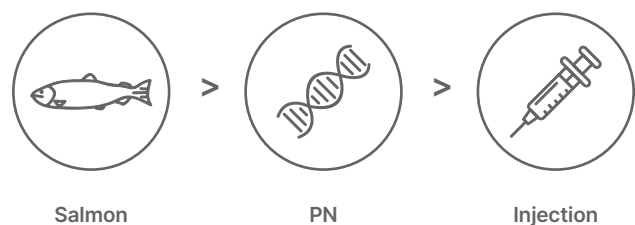

brightness of the epidermis, that helps in the restoration of the tonicity and luminosity of a smoother skin texture.

■ PN(Polynucleotide)

It is a biopolymer composed of 13 or more nucleotide units.

Deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) and ribonucleic acid (RNA) are polynucleotides with distinct biological functions. Polynucleotides derived from fish are used in aesthetic medicine as dermal fillers.

The Ministry of Food and Drug Safety has approved PN as a safe human-compatible substance.

Polynucleotide (PN) has previously been utilized as a skin injection for anti-aging and hair growth therapies in Korea, as well as for medical skin regeneration.

PN is a purer and more concentrated version of PDRN, with superior regeneration qualities.
